A massive campaign was carried out by Go-Green.ae to promote Earth Hour in Dubai.

The photograph shows a busy highway in Dubai which at any other time is brightly lit. During Earth Hour it was unrecognizable!

Dubai was one of the first cities in the Arab world to participate in Earth Hour.

Reportedly 75% of residents participated in Earth Hour.

I just spoke with sharadagarwa and he said he spent Earth Hour eating a candlelit dinner with family in Dubai. This was the second year he's celebrated Earth hour.
